Wednesday Mornings at Christ Church: "The Cock's Crow"

Come join in any activity you'd like, starting Oct. 7:

7:35-8:05 Holy Eucharist & Homily in the Chapel

8:05-8:35 Hot Breakfast Buffet (donations accepted)

8:10-8:45 "Rooster Light" (does not meet on 2nd Wednesdays)

"Rooster Light" is a bit like Theology-Lite, but it is centered on discussion of only St. Peter & St. Paul and how they were forever changed – one at the cock's crow, and one by the blinding light on the road to Damascus. It will explore what we know about Peter, who stayed in Jerusalem to be the first overseer (bishop) of the new Christians, and of Paul, who in his writings and travels took the message of Christ to the entire world of his day. Eat 'n' meet at the same time if you'd like. Meets in the library and regular attendance is not required. Discussions facilitated by Paul "Peter" Hogg. (Sept. 30 remains HE 7:30 & Breakfast 8:00.) AA meets every Wednesday, 6:30-7:30a, Room 202, beginning Sept 30. It is an open meeting – all are welcome.

Grief Workshops begin Oct. 5

Christ Church will offer a series of Grief Workshops for those who are grieving the death of a loved one, beginning Oct. 5 at 7:00p and continuing until mid-November. This is a structured program using videos, a workbook and discussion. Although sessions build one upon another, each one can stand alone, so one need not attend every session. Holiday seasons are often difficult times for those in grief, so this workshop is offered in the fall. For more information or to register, please contact Lin Boyle (834-6259 x106, lboyle@christchurchraleigh.org), Charles Smith (467-3006, sandraps@bellsouth.net) or Peter Hogg (834-6259 x101, phogg@christchurchraleigh.org).

ECW Art Show & Sale: Oct. 8

Come to the Art Show party on Thursday, Oct. 8, 5:30-7:30p, at 123 Seaboard Avenue. Tickets are $15 in advance and $20 at the door. Your check (payable to Christ Church ECW) is your reservation. Send checks to Louise Stowe, 2604 Dover Rd., Raleigh 27608. Raffle tickets are being sold for a spectacular rooster painting by John Silver ($25 each or 5/$100.) Contact Louise Stowe (788-9242 or lstowe@nc.rr.com) for information. To see John Silver's painting in color, visit www.christchurchraleigh.org, Events.

ECW Newcomers Luncheon: Oct. 15

Please Join the Women of Christ Church for our Annual Fall Luncheon on Thursday, Oct. 15, 11:00a-1:00p at the home of Ramona Holdstock, 2512 White Oak Road. RSVP: Jacquelyn King (785-0372 or jacqking@bellsouth.net).

Seniors Lunch & Learn: Oct. 15

Watch the award-winning documentary Moving Midway on Thursday, Oct. 15, 1:30p in Room 202 with friends, popcorn and Cokes. Film critic Godfrey Cheshire, a Raleigh native, made this documentary film about his ancestral family home, Midway Plantation (<http://midwayplantation.com>), built by Charles Lewis Hinton in 1848 near present-day Knightdale. Cheshire's cousin Charlie Silver, who owns and lives at Midway, physically moved the building to avoid encroaching urban sprawl. Cheshire set out to film the process and its impact on the family, but in the course of the project discovered and befriended a large African American branch of the Hinton family. We'll also tour Midway at a later date.

Historic Edenton Tour: Saturday, Oct. 17

Our parish history group is planning a bus tour to Historic Edenton, NC, on Oct. 17. Cost: $45 if paid by Sept. 30 (after that date, $50 based on space availability). Box lunch included; please wear comfortable shoes. For reservations contact Nancy Haywood (834-6259 or nhaywood@christchurchraleigh.org). Make checks payable to Christ Church. Direct questions to John Ward (833-8593 or john.a.ward@earthlink.net).

Lobster lovers: Christ Church's fall Lobsterfest is Oct. 24

Please join us for the very first Christ Church Lobsterfest on Saturday, Oct. 24, from 5:30-7:30p. Lobsterfest includes a 1-1/3-lb. lobster, coleslaw, baked beans, cornbread & dessert for $22, OR take out live lobsters to cook at home ($17ea.). Buy 12 dinners or 12 live lobsters and the 13th is FREE! Tickets are at www.christchurchraleigh.org or in the lobby. Purchase deadline is Oct. 18. For information or to help, contact Nancy Haywood (834-6259 x112 or nhaywood@christchurchraleigh.org). Proceeds will benefit the Parish Family Assistance Fund. Want to contribute to the Parish Fam-

Volunteers Needed for CCOM Quarterly Project

CCOM's 3rd quarter service project will be building a wheelchair ramp on Saturday, Oct. 24. We need 7-8 volunteers to work for about a half day to build a ramp for an elderly person in our community. We will be working with Resources for Seniors, who will supervise us in the building of the ramp. The only requirement of volunteers is that they be able to hammer a nail or two. To volunteer, please contact Arthur Hunt (alhunt1@nc.rr.com or 649-0770).

Flu Season: The Common Cup & Good Advice

1. Recent reports reveal that all flu types primarily are spread through unshielded coughs or sneezes. Please remember to have a handkerchief ready or lift your arm and sneeze into your bent arm. Now that we are faced with a swine flu epidemic, it's important to shield your sneeze. If you cough into your hand, cleanse it before shaking hands with others.

2. If you have a cold, do not take from the common cup. You can always intinct (dip) if preferred when receiving wine. Eucharistic ministers will lower the cup, tilt it slightly toward you so you can see the wine level, and hold the purificator under the cup's edge, toward you, to catch a drip should you do more than just barely touch the wine with the wafer. Communion in one kind (bread) is always acceptable; cross your arms across your chest and the cup will pass you by. PH

Supporting our Soldiers Ministry

If you have a family member serving in the Armed Forces abroad or in an area of combat, Christ Church would like to send them a note, a prayer and/or a care package. If you think he/she would appreciate the remembrance, please send the following information to Katherine Bratton (khbratton@bellsouth.net): soldier's name, specific military address, length of time at assignment, country of current assignment, your name and phone number (for any questions).

Backpacks and bags for kids still needed

New or used backpacks and bags are fine! Thanks for the ones you've brought, but we need more-- this class has 44 kids, including 3 who are homeless. New or used backpacks or bags are needed for 3- and 4-year-old low income children who attend a program sponsored by Wake Co. Schools & Shaw Univ. If you'd like to donate a backpack or bag, please drop it in the basket in the lobby.

With appreciation, Anna Smith & Carrie Johnson

Bible Study for 4th & 5th Grade Girls

Bible Study for 4th & 5th grade girls begins again on Oct. 14. We'll meet in Room 016, 4:30-5:30p on Wednesdays, continuing through Nov. 18 (skipping Oct. 28 for the Halloween Carnival). We'll start again in Jan. and continue until May. We'll use The Christian Girl's Guide to Being Your Best by Katrina Cassel and Devotions for Girls – God and Me by Linda Washington & Jeanette Dall, focusing on Christian values such as honesty, humility, empathy, compassion & kindness. This is an age when girls break away from parental influence, becoming more influenced by their peers. We hope to help our girls navigate through new relationships and experiences. Please let us know if your daughter is interested in attending, and if you would you be willing to assist with snack by contacting Anna Smith (834-6259 x118 or asmith@christchurchraleigh.org).
