

PSALM 138

I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with my whole | heart; *
before the gods I will sing your | praise.

I will bow down toward your holy temple and praise your | Name, *
because of your love and | faithfulness;

For you have glorified your | Name *
and your word above all | things.

When I called, you | answered me; *
you increased my strength with | in me.

All the kings of the earth will praise you, O | LORD, *
when they have heard the words of your | mouth.

They will sing of the ways of the | LORD, *
that great is the glory of the | LORD.

Though the LORD be high, he cares for the | lowly; *
he perceives the haughty from a | far.

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me | safe; *
you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;
your right hand shall | save me.

+ The LORD will make good his purpose | for me; *
O LORD, your love endures for ever;
do not abandon the works of your | hands.

EPISTLE: 1 CORINTHIANS 15:1-11

I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you--unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them--though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

GOSPEL: LUKE 5:1-11

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

CHRIST CHURCH

A PARISH OF THE EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF NORTH CAROLINA

FEBRUARY 7, 2010

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY

Welcome

Each Sunday we gather as a community of faith to celebrate the presence of the Risen Christ in our midst. All baptized Christians are invited to receive the sacrament of bread and wine. Thank you for being with us today.

ENTER REST AND PRAY

Almighty God, we give thanks for Christ Church. We remember all those who have faithfully served You as clergy and lay members of our parish since 1821. We are grateful for the many ministries that honor You by serving those in our parish, our community and the world. We pray that You will be with us all during this time of transition and that You will help us to discern the future You desire for us. We ask You to guide us as we seek to identify our thirteenth rector, and we offer our prayers of support for those who will consider a call to Christ Church. In Your holy name we pray. Amen.

EPISCOPAL SPEAK

A sacrament is an outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace. Two sacraments were instituted and ordained by Jesus: Baptism and Holy Eucharist. There are five other sacraments that we recognize: Reconciliation, Confirmation, Ordination, Matrimony, and Rite of Healing.

OLD TESTAMENT READING: ISAIAH 6:1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!" Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"
